Great diving on any dates.

- Many dates through 2013 available for full, half boat charter or individual cabins... What works for you? Plan ahead as these popular trips ...they fill fast... don't miss out. Cabin choices are currently open on some trips.. not all. Call me and I will check.
- The water is a little warmer in January and will be changing...(see details below) ... Early in the year is a period where there is a great chance to see all the critters... the usual mantas, whale sharks and.. maybe even the arrival of the humpbacks and hammerheads who like it cooler..like in April ! Always an exciting experience whatever date you choose.
- Check the trip reports on the Nautilus' website for actual reports, videos and images... then sign up and capture your own !
- BOOK WITH ME AND I WILL INCLUDE THE NIGHT IN CABO BEFORE YOU BOARD THE SHIP !
My way of saying "thank you." Carol

Socorro Seasonality – The Socorro Islands are available November through mid-June. During these months all the mantas and sharks are plentiful. Water temperature:78 - 82 F in November, December, early-mid January Late January, February, March, early April can be 70 - 74 F. The Humpback Whales visit Socorro in great numbers during these cooler water months. Underwater encounters with these whales are on the increase every year. There is really no best time to dive these islands since diving is great throughout the season. Lets' go !! The Nautilus Experience: 5-Star !

The Nautilus Explorer has gone through a major redesign....more suites. A new triple stateroom option is also available. 24 divers total. Visit:
